MISSION

Rapahope brings joy to the childhood cancer journey through recreational and support programs for those with childhood cancer and their families.

BRINGING JOY SINCE 1985

Rapahope has been bringing joy to children diagnosed with cancer and their families since 1985. We are a non-profit organization that offers free, year-round programming, including our flagship summer camp, as well as weekend and day-long opportunities for families and siblings to have fun together. Our goal is to help campers have life-changing camp experiences filled with as many amazing moments as possible. Rapahope is a member of Children's Oncology Camping Association International (COCA-I).
